Sometimes our portion of wisdom wears thin, we fail to keep appointments and miss the boat. But this is the way we live. In our frantic race to prepare for adult responsibilities in the swiftly moving world - when missiles to the moon are no longer merely a fantasy, but a reality - in this age, the age of Speed, we must find the wisdom to lead us.

Dedication

With the greatest gratitude, we, The Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, dedicate our '59 Chieftain to you, Mrs. Doris Gurley.

In this small way we hope to show our deepest appreciation for all that you have done for us in the past four years. You have listened to our complaints, helped us work out problems, and encouraged us. We will always remember you for your untiring patience and cheerful disposition. It is our privilege to have been your students.

Thus, Mrs. Gurley, we hope your life will always be rich and rewarding.

The Senior Class of 1959

Dear Seniors,

I extend congratulations to the class of 1959. As you complete another phase of your adolescent years, you are contemplating a magic venture into the world of adults. The past four years have given you opportunities with your classmates as well as laid a foundation strong enough to allow you to face realities and to set a straight and stronger course that you may live more abundantly.

I greet you as you enter this new phase of life with a challenge for more creative endeavors in the future, but, more important, for growth toward a greater capacity for service toward the fellow next door, to your community and to people everywhere----the world over.

Sincerely,

David L. Green

History

Mrs Surley, you, to me are an example of the ideal teacher. I know this through two years of experience.
In these two years I have learned many things, not only concerning English and literature, but getting along and associating with people. May your life continue to be a success.

It been lots of fun being in your class the past year.
And I appreciate all the times that you help me, if I didn't understand my English work.

Class Song

Graduation makes us blue
Now that high school days are through;
But we'll always think of you,
Nahunta High.

Every day we'll reminisce
Dreaming of our mem'ories bliss,
Always thinking how we'll miss
Nahunta High.

A few short years it seems
Have gone by with teachers and friends;
And with work, fun, and cheer
There'll be no blue memories here.

As we journey on our way,
May success be ours each day
Always thinking of our stay at Nahunta High.

Class History

One September morning in 1947, forty-eight bright-eyed youngsters flooded the halls of Nahunta High School to enlarge their minds with years of learning. Some were rather shy, like Johnny Lee, while others, like Ray Sasser, had to be tamed. We were soon under Mrs. Dora Fleming's guiding hand and were fortunate to be promoted to the second grade in the spring of 1948.

Being a large group, we were divided all of our elementary and grammar days until the eighth grade. Our teachers during these years included: Mrs. Leslie Rowe, Mrs. Bertha Peacock, Mrs. Dixie Edmundson, Miss Mary Pipkin, Mrs. Louise Lewis, Mrs. Lena Smith, Mrs. Mozelle Gurley, Mrs. Eva Wooten, Mrs. Pearl Pierce, and Mr. Herbert Banks.

Although these years were happy ones with the usual parties and picnics, nothing too exciting happened to us other than our visit to the State Capital in the fifth grade.

Among those who joined us in grammar school were Deanye Lee, Judy Aycock, Judith Overman, Glennie Langley, Louise Bizzell, Charles Sullivan, Rose Aycock, Edith Holland, Allen Aycock, Harold Lewis, and Kenneth Wells.

Our School life really became interesting in the eighth grade with Mr. Charles Boykin as our instructor and Mr. W. P. Hollowell as our principal. After much confusion, we eventually got into the swing of changing classes and were graduated into high school with great expectations for the next four years.

As Freshmen, our year began with a bang, with Mr. Don Shackleford as our teacher. The highlight of this year was a visit to Chapel Hill and State College.

Our Sophomore year whizzed by with Mr. Scott McPhail and Mrs. Mary Alice Howell advising us. Making good use of the money we made from tying tobacco, we had a Christmas party at the Grange Hall.

By the time our Junior year rolled around, we had settled down considerably and were ready to work. Mr. David Green became our new principal, taking the place of Mr. Henry Beard. With the addition of Robert Parnell and the loss of Michael Mayo and Christine Mitchell the help of Mrs. Louise Wilkie was much needed to conduct many money raising projects. Some of these were picking cotton, selling magazines, stationery, and candy. After many setbacks, our Junior Play, "No Boys Allowed," was successfully presented on April 4, 1958.

Along with Career Day and ad selling, our banquet at which we entertained the Seniors in the school cafeteria was memorable. Having "Plantation" as our theme, we used the colonial home in the background. Taking a part in graduation exercises made us realize how far along we were.

Returning in the fall of 1958 for our final year, we were delighted to have Mrs. Doris Gurley as our sponsor.

We started right to work with ad selling, peanut shaking, and cotton picking. But in our busy schedule we managed to take a half day to relax and enjoy one of Shakespeare's plays, "The Taming of the Shrew", at Atlantic

Christian College, in Wilson, North Carolina.

The receiving of our class rings aroused much excitement, but with the presentation of our Senior play, "The End of the Lane," December 3, 1958 we soon came down to earth.

Although it has been hard work, we have enjoyed working on the annual. We are looking forward to our Senior excursion and other activities. These will remain deep in our minds.

As we look back over the past, we realize that somewhere just over the horizon lies our future. Our parents, teachers, and friends have helped us create it thus far and at this time we twenty eight Seniors should like to express our thanks to them. Surely we have needed their guidance and protection in this fast moving age of hula hoops and rocket ships.

Historian, Margaret Berry

Senior Class Poem

We are the seniors of '59.
As a class we leave our mem'ries behind.
We really hate to say good-by
To our dear school--Nahunta High.
The days have gone by much too fast
And the time to leave has come at last.
Our wonderful class has had troubles and fun
But through the years our victories we've won.
Here's to our teachers who have endured our ways;
We wish them happiness through all their days.
Strolling, studying, playing, and singing -
These things in our minds will be always ringing.
We think now of the challenging world ahead
Looking to God that we may be led.
The future calls us to a different life
Where there will be problems and much strife.
We'll practice each day the principles we've been taught
Knowing education is a tool that can't be bought.

ATHLETICS

Mrs. Dewley,

I have greatly enjoyed having you as my English teacher for the past two years. You have seemed to share our joys and disappointments with us, thus making our school days better. I am really looking forward to French next year. Best of luck always to a very sweet teacher.

Love,
Lillian

ADVERTISERS

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Nine, being of supposedly sound bodies but mixed-up minds, leave our various personal possessions to the following:

Charles Sullivan and Harold Lewis leave their artistic ability at great heights to anyone with the nerve to attempt such.

Carol Vick leaves her typing ability to Eloise Tucker in hopes she will use it wisely.

Louise Bizzell leaves her flirty ways to Carrie Wade since she doesn't already have any. Margaret Berry, Janice Mayo, and Judith Overman leave their sandwiches and cake to the lunchroom.

Jimmy Howell leaves his yellow scarf to Mr. Green because he seems to like it so well.

Deanye Lee leaves her hips to Joyce Ricks. She may need them to push her way through some tight situation.

Glennie Langley leaves her ability to get along with others to Ralph Wells.

Ted Peacock leaves his slogan, "Have Camera Won't Work," to the photographer of the rising senior class.

Kenneth Wells leaves nothing - he's just delighted to be leaving.

Johnny Lee and Robert Parnell leave their quiet and easy-to-get-along-with dispositions to Glenn Sasser.

Ray Sasser leaves his ability to be popular with all of the girls to Bill Jordan.

Judy Aycock leaves her ability to play the piano to Mary Lee Sasser so there will be someone to play for all of the programs next year.

Judy Stuckey leaves her big mouth and giggles to Helene Lewis, so it won't be so quiet around school next year.

Gerald Brown leaves his friendly, courteous ways to anyone who happens to need them.

Rose Aycock leaves her long hair to Mr. Foyles, because he could use any kind.

Robert Gurley leaves his talent for singing the male lead in the Glee Club to Bobby Bunn.

Jimmy Thomas leaves his brains and position as president of practically every organization to Albert Pierce.

Jane Howell and Inez Sasser leave their mischievous pranks to Linda Pittman and Elizabeth Morris so there will be someone to aggravate Mr. Boykin at basketball practice next year.

Betty Wells leaves her ability to stay in love and in school at the same time to Lois Edgerton.

Max Rose leaves his quiet yet sneaky ways to Wayne Sasser.

Allen Aycock leaves his good looks to Linwood Radford to add to those he already has.

Edith Holland leaves her quiet, co-operative ways to whoever desires them.

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Nine leave nothing to the school. We figure we will need all that we possess and more too, now that we will be getting out on our own.

P. S. We do leave our love and gratitude to all who helped us along the way, as well as a gift to the school.

Class Prophecy

During a recent tour of many places, I saw all of my classmates, whom I hadn't seen since graduation five years ago.

The pilot of the jet that transported me was Robert Gurley. He is an Air Force pilot hired especially for the tour.

While in California I met Major Johnny Lee stationed with the Army there. Sergeant Max Rose was with him.

Shortly after I arrived in New York, I attended a ballgame at the Yankee Stadium. The Yankee outfielder in center looked familiar and, looking closer, I saw that he was Harold Lewis. He has taken over centerfield since Mickey Mantle has retired.

As I was passing through one of the federal buildings in Washington D. C., whom should I see but Glennie Langley typing away. She did get to Washington as everyone thought.

From Washington, D. C., I flew to Oak Ridge, Tennessee to visit the atomic plant. Upon entering the plant, one of the first persons I saw was Margaret Berry, who is now secretary to a certain nuclear engineer.

I traveled next into my home state, North Carolina. While in Raleigh visiting a sick friend in Rex Hospital, I soon discovered that Jane Howell is the head nurse on the fourth floor.

As I was walking down Fayetteville Street, I bumped into Inez Sasser with a group of FHA girls, attending the FHA convention.

Attending a special service at the Durham FWB Church, I found Rose Aycock, as director of the Youth Group, sponsoring the service.

During the service I noticed a familiar-looking man in front of me. He was Gerald Brown who is working in the Durham cigarette factory. With him was Ted Peacock, photographer with the Durham DAILY NEWS.

Back in my hotel room in Raleigh, I began reading a book by Jimmy Howell that he gave me when I saw him at a literary convention.

Getting out of the jet at Seymour Johnson AFB, I spied Allen Aycock and Ray Sasser, jet mechanics.

While eating at a local restaurant in Goldsboro, I talked with Judy Aycock, director of Christian education in one of the local churches.

Firemen Kenneth Wells and Robert Parnell were on duty when I paid a visit to Goldsboro's new fire station.

Edith Holland was the clerk who helped me while I was shopping in one of the stores. As I was leaving, I bumped into Louise Bizzell, a housewife who doesn't have much time for an outside job.

At Fremont Motor Sales in Fremont I saw Judy Stuckey typing away. Every few minutes she would look in the garage. She is keeping her eye on that certain mechanic.

At the postoffice I met Betty Wells, a happy housewife now.

In Nahunta many changes have been made. The store with the sign out front, "Charles' Electric Shop," attracted my attention. Going inside I found that Charles Sullivan is owner and operator.

Over at the school I found Judith Overman teaching the first grade.

At the Nahunta Grocery I saw Jimmy Thomas, a leading farmer.

At Janice's Beauty Shop in Kenly, I saw Janice Mayo as owner.

Near Lucama, I visited Carol Vick, a happily married housewife.

After visiting several more places, I returned to Greenville, South Carolina where I live. I must get back to my history classes at the local high school.

NAHUNTA SCHOOL

We have spent 180 happy days at N. H. S. traveling in our many ways, for our own particular reasons, but always in the same direction -- toward becoming graduates, and worthy members of our community. Our days have all too quickly passed. Now where we go, and how we get there is up to us as individuals.

Mrs. Gurley,

It certainly has been all my pleasure and honor to have been able to have for my teacher for the past four years. Through your teaching my knowledge of French and English has been greatly increased. I appreciate everything that you have done for me and especially in helping me to enter college. There aren't enough words to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to you for everything. May your life be rich and rewarding with much success and happiness in the future.

Judith Oberman

Mrs. Gurley,

I have enjoyed these four years as your student. I appreciate everything you have done for me very much. I appreciate, also, very much, what you did for me while I was sick in New York. May your future be filled with happiness.

Deanye Lee
